

PRESERVING OUR STORIES:

DESIGNATING NATIONAL MONUMENTS THAT TELL AFRICAN AMERICAN AND MINORITY STORIES

Tuesday, November 27, 2018

2pm

Auditorium

Bennie G. Thompson Academic and Civil Rights Research Center
Tougaloo College

Join faith and spiritual leaders as they discuss preserving public lands and national monuments that tell the stories of all Americans including native Americans and African Americans. The discussion will feature the Medgar Evers House, the Civil Rights National Monuments, and Bears Ears National Monument.

Speakers include: Bishop C. James King, Christian Methodist Episcopal Church; Rev. Dr. Wayne A. Williams, Christian Methodist Episcopal Church; Kevin Bryan, Next 100 Coalition; Rev. Neddie Winters, Mission Mississippi; and Native American Spiritual Leader Jonah Yellowman, Utah Diné Bikéyah.

Refreshments served.